DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4, 6, 7, 9, 12, 13, 18-25 and 27-32 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 6,498,944 to Ben-Haim et al. ("Ben") in view of U. S. Patent No. 6,579,242 to Bui et al.

4. Regarding Claims 1, 6-9, 18, 19, and 22-24, Ben teaches a system comprising: one or more processors communicatively coupled together and configured to receive: position information pertaining to a position of a probe inside the body of a patient (Abstract and Fig. 2); and measuring physiological parameters (Col. 6 lines 26-32).

5. Ben does not expressly teach that the physiological parameters comprises at least two of the following types of information pertaining to the patient: blood pressure, temperature, respiratory rate, pulse oximetry, and respiratory CO<sub>2</sub> concentration; and one or more displays communicatively coupled to the processor, the display being configured to display the position information and the patient information.

6. Bui discloses measuring and displaying physiological parameters comprising at least 4 of blood pressure, temperature, respiratory rate, pulse oximetry, and respiratory CO<sub>2</sub> concentration; and one or more displays communicatively coupled to the processor, the display being configured to display the position information and the patient information. (Abstract; Col. 4 lines 21-41; and Fig. 1)
7. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Ben with a setup of measuring and displaying physiological parameters as taught by Bui, since such a setup would result in all the physiological data are viewed by the physician at once and the patients vital signs will not go undetected.
8. Regarding Claims 2, 12, and 27, Ben teaches mapping the heart. (Col. 2 lines 23-30)
9. Regarding Claims 3, and 28, Ben teaches position sensors for information of position of probe in the heart of the patient. (Fig. 1 and 2)
10. Regarding Claims 4, 13, and 25, Ben teaches measuring electrical information sensed from the heart. (Col. 7 lines 32-34)
11. Regarding Claim 21, Ben teaches the use of a display for displaying the information. (Fig. 2 element 34)
12. Regarding Claim 20, Bui teaches the use of wireless communication. (Col. 4 lines 10-20)

Conclusion

13. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

14. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
